

Name: _____

1. Why might migrating locusts be frightening? _____

2. What do grasshoppers need to survive? What does this have to do with migration? _____

3. How are locusts different from grasshoppers? _____

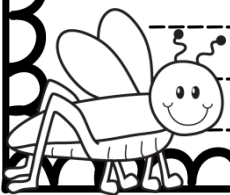

4. In what ways are locusts a nuisance to humans? Give a few examples: _____

5. How are grasshoppers with plenty of food different from grasshoppers with little food? _____

6. What makes the migration of the gray whale so unique? _____

7. What is baleen? _____

8. Which type of whale leaves the Arctic waters first? Why? _____

9. How do whales stay alive without eating for long periods? _____

10. After migrating to warmer waters, which whales leave first to return to the Arctic? _____

11. What was the author's purpose in writing this story? How do you know? _____

12. Compare and contrast the migration of locusts and whales in the chart below:

Whales	Locusts
Both

